

The Gerald L. Klerman Award is the highest honor that DBSA gives to members of the scientific community. Presented each year, this award recognizes researchers whose work advances knowledge of the causes, diagnosis, and treatment of depression and bipolar disorder.

Submission deadline is July 15, 2021.

Candidates must be no older than 45 years of age at time of nomination.

A completed application will include:

- 1) This information form
(to be completed by nominee)
- 2) The nominee's curriculum vitae
- 3) One or more recommendations
- 4) A photo of the nominee (optional)

Please e-mail all materials to DBSA Scientific Advisory Board Chair, Roger McIntyre, M.D., FRCPC at SABChair@DBSAAlliance.org.

Questions should be directed to Roger by e-mail at SABChair@DBSAAlliance.org.

The Selection Committee of DBSA's Scientific Advisory Board will select awardees by October 2021.

Full Name

Title

Institutional Affiliation

Current Position

Continue on Next Page >

Thank You to Our Sponsors

neurocrine
BIOSCIENCES

PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANIES OF
Johnson & Johnson

Area(s) of Research and Impact in the Field

Please describe research you have been involved in that is most relevant for individuals living with depression and/or bipolar disorder. When possible, please use basic, consumer-friendly language. We ask that you limit your response to 500 words or less. This information will appear on the DBSA website, DBSAlliance.org.

