Hello!

My name is Lonely and I am glad you found this DBSA Mood Crew workbook! My friends and I created this workbook for children to better understand emotions.

The DBSA Mood Crew has a lot of experience with emotions, so we put our heads together to create games, worksheets, and activities that will illustrate what we are all about. Adults may find these activities and games helpful tools to start talking about emotions with children. (Adults have fun with this, too!)

If you have ever met my friend Angry, you’ll know that some emotions can be difficult. However, once you get to know Angry better, you might realize that we all feel that way sometimes. The DBSA Mood Crew wants everyone to know that it is okay to feel all kinds of emotions. The more you get to know us, the better you will be able to recognize who we are and when you feel like we do.

I am really not great at making friends, so I hope it’s not too forward to ask if you’d join me in exploring this DBSA Mood Crew workbook. If you are ready, come and get to know us better!

With Feeling,

Lonely

Dialogues
Hey Worried, do you want to color with me at my desk?

No, I don't think I can.

Why? What's going on?

I left my gym shoes at home and I'm scared that I'm going to get in trouble because I won't get to participate in PE class.

Oh, I see.

I'm going to get in real trouble when the teacher finds out.

Have you forgotten your gym shoes before?

Yes.

Did you get in trouble then?

No. But my teacher said that if I forgot them again, I'd get detention.

And you don't want to get detention.

No.

Yeah, nobody wants to get detention, I guess.

Oh geez, now I'm really worried!

Hey Worried, I know detention doesn't feel good, but it won't last forever.

My teacher is going to be so mad.
Forgetful Footwear

Your teacher just wants you to be able to participate with the class so you can have fun and learn new things.

Can you think of a way to remember your shoes for the next time?

At night before I go to bed, I can put them in my bookbag.

That sounds like a great idea!

I’ll give it a try!

Ok. Are you going to talk to the teacher now?

Yes. I’m scared, but I’ll do it.

Good. You can color with me after you get back.

Questions for learning:

- Have you ever been in Worried’s shoes before?
- How did Calm help Worried?
- Do you have someone that helps you like Calm helped Worried?
- Have you ever been able to help someone feel more calm?
Let’s Stay Together

Happy

Hey, what are you two doing sitting over here? The rest of us are putting together a puzzle at the table. Do you want to join us?

Sad

No. It’s no use trying to do anything.

Go on, Happy, we’ll just keep each other company for right now. Sad is my only friend.

Maybe forever.

Hey, Sad. Nothing is forever.

It feels like it’s always like this. Always.

Happy, it’s no use.

Maybe if you joined us at the table, you would feel better.

I could go with you, but then Sad would be... lonely.

It’s ok. You can leave me to play with Happy. If you want.

Are you sure?

No.

Well gee whiz, Sad.

You two seem to be stuck together.

We are related.

I should have known!

You two look a lot alike.
Let’s Stay Together

Sad

- It’s our eyebrows.
- Yes, that’s what it is. Hey, I have an idea!
- Oh no, I’m afraid it won’t be a good one.
- Not good enough to fix how bad we are feeling right now.
- Oh, I don’t want to fix you two. You’re not broken!
- But, we can’t even get out of this corner.
- It’s ok, for now. You won’t always be here.
- We won’t?
- Of course not!
- How do you know?
- Well, because I’ve seen you two other places...
  - on the playground...
  - at lunch... in class...
- You’re right.
- I guess we’re not always in this corner.
- How about I sit here with you for a little bit.
- I like you sitting here with us. Don’t you, Sad?
- Yes. I like talking to you, Happy.
- Being with others helps us sometimes.
- I do feel less alone now.
- Maybe doing a puzzle would help us even more...
- Let’s give it a try!

Hey Angry, how come you’re not eating your lunch?

I am angry!

I know! I’m Confident!

This is no time for jokes, Confident!

Ok, ok. Sorry. Yes, let’s be serious. Why are you upset?

My mom put a banana in my lunch and she knows I don’t like bananas.

Oh I see. Maybe your mom forgot that you don’t like bananas?

...maybe.

My mom puts bananas in my lunch because she wants me to eat fruit.

But you like bananas. I do not!

That’s true.

See? Maybe you would be angry just like me if you didn’t like them.

Maybe.

Bananas are smooshy and gross.

Do you like other kinds of fruit?

Some.

What kinds do you like?

Oranges.

Any other kind?
The Smoosh Factor

Angry: Hey, I have an idea! What if you told your mom that you don’t like bananas because they’re smooshy...

Confident: Ok...

Angry: And then you can tell her about all the other fruits that you like to eat!

Confident: Do you think she would put apples in my lunch instead?

Angry: I don’t know. But, you won’t know until you ask.

Confident: That’s true.

Angry: Fruit is nutritious. It’s cool that your mom wants you to eat fruit.

Confident: You think my mom’s cool?

Angry: Yeah.

Confident: She is pretty cool, I guess. Thanks, Confident.

Questions for learning:

- What would you have done if you were Angry?
- How did Confident help Angry?
- Can you think of a time you were angry and upset?
- Confident suggested to Angry to talk to her mom about what made her upset. Can you think of a time when you were able to talk to someone who made you angry?
Confident, can I talk to you for a second?

Sure, Embarrassed. I love talking to you!

You do?

Well, yeah. I think you’re great!

Oh. Well, ok.

What’s up?

This is hard for me to say.

I’m listening.

I’m embarrassed because I tripped over my shoelace in front of everyone and they all laughed at me.

How does that make you feel?

I feel bad about myself.

I’m sorry you feel bad about yourself.

Me too.

But hey—sometimes I do things that I get embarrassed about, too.

Really? Like what?

One time at lunch I spilled ketchup all over my shirt. It was a mess! Everyone was laughing at me.

That is embarrassing!

What did you do?

I made a joke! I said, “Hey, everyone, it looks like my shirt likes this ketchup as much as I do!”

What did everyone do after you said that?

They all laughed at my joke instead of my clumsiness.
Tripping into Confidence

Oh. I wish I could have made a joke.

But I don’t like the way it makes me feel.

One time I didn’t brush my hair before school and the other kids laughed at me.

How long did you feel bad about that?

I don’t remember.

I bet it wasn’t long. Feelings don’t last forever.

I guess not.

We’re all human, and nobody is perfect.

You’re right.

And sometimes when I feel embarrassed about something I did, I remind myself of that.

I’ll try that too.

I’m glad you told me how you feel.

Me too.

How do you feel now?

I feel better because I talked to you.

Good! Then let’s play kickball!

Okay!

Questions for learning:

- What helped Embarrassed to feel better?
- When have you felt embarrassed?
- Confident reminds herself that nobody is perfect. What can you say to yourself when you feel embarrassed?
- If you see someone else who’s embarrassed, can you talk to them about it?
Hey, Scared, what's going on? I'm afraid!

What are you afraid of? The dark!

I understand, sometimes the dark can be scary. It sure can be!

But, it can also be fun. I have an idea! What is it?

Well, it's dark outside now. Let's get flashlights and go outside—c'mon! Ok, but will you hold my hand?

Sure, let's go! SCARED AND EXCITED GO OUTSIDE.

It's so dark out here. My heart is beating so fast! I know, mine too!

Are you afraid too? No! But our bodies do some of the same things when we are scared or excited. Isn't that neat?

Yeah, I didn't know that. Ok. Let's sit here.
Ok.

Turn your flashlight off.

But it’ll be too dark!

You’ll be able to see other kinds of light when you turn it off. Trust me!

--- SCARED TURNS THE FLASHLIGHT OFF. ---

Ready? Look up in the sky at all the stars!

Whoa. They are beautiful!

I know! And look over there in the field. Do you see the lightning bugs flying?

Yes!

These are things you can look at when you’re afraid.

Thanks, Excited.

And even more fun—when it’s dark, you can imagine all sorts of things! What do you imagine in the dark?

What do you imagine in the dark?

I imagine going to the moon and riding roller coasters and climbing mountains!

Those sound terrifying!

Those are things I want to do. What are fun things that you want to do?

I like to go swimming...

Me too! Were you afraid of swimming the first time you tried?

Yes, I was so scared! But my older sister taught me how to swim, so now I’m not scared of it anymore.

See? You can still try new things, even if you are scared.

Yeah, I guess I can.

It’s brave to try new things!

You mean I’m brave?

You are brave!

Thanks for your help, Excited.

You’re welcome.

--- Questions for learning: ---

- When have you been afraid to try something new?
- Excited wants to go to the moon, ride roller coasters, and climb mountains. What sounds exciting to you?
- When have you tried something that made you afraid at first?
- What makes your heart beat fast?
MOOD CREW®
Matching Moods Game

Matching Moods is a game that is meant to help children identify and discuss emotions.

Instructions

SET-UP
Print the downloadable DBSA Mood Crew cards from the DBSA website. Cut out cards.

GAME PLAY
1. Shuffle the cards so that they are in random order.
2. Lay cards out with Mood Crew character facing down.
3. One at a time, flip over the cards until someone finds a match.
4. When someone does find a match, the facilitator (parent, caregiver, clinician, educator) should ask the child a question about that emotion.

   Examples of questions you can ask during game play:
   - Can you tell me what that emotion means?
   - Can you think of a time that you felt that emotion?
   - When you feel this emotion, what expression does your face make?
   - Can you tell me a story about a character that feels that emotion?
   - Can you remember a time when you observed someone else feeling that emotion? Why do you think they felt that way?

5. Once someone gets a match and answers one of the questions above (or a related question you create), they get to keep the match and the next player picks.

6. The game play ends when all the cards have been collected. The winner is the player with the highest number of matches.
MOOD CREW®
Moods in Motion

Moods in Motion is a game for children and adults to explore ten core moods:

Happy • Excited • Calm • Scared • Confident
Worried • Lonely • Sad • Angry • Embarrassed

Act

Acting out an emotion gives kids (and adults) a chance to feel what happens in their bodies when specific emotions arise. Connecting mind to body while an emotion is occurring can be grounding, which helps us choose to respond to something rather than react.

MIRROR, MIRROR

Instructions

SET-UP
Print the downloadable DBSA Mood Crew cards from the DBSA website. Cut out cards.

GAME PLAY
1. Shuffle the cards so that they are in random order.
2. Each player will pick a card and follow directions below.

Directions:
Mirror, Mirror is a chance to help each player see what their bodies do when they’re acting out an emotion. In this game, the player will pick a card and demonstrate their interpretation of what the specific emotion looks like. The other players will mirror them by doing the same movements.

Note to Adults:
Since each player will have their own interpretation/movement for a given emotion, ask the kids how it feels in their body to create the movement or mirror the other players to increase their awareness of how they’re moving.

GAME PLAY
1. Shuffle the cards so that they are in random order.
2. Each player will pick a card and follow directions below.

Directions:
In Big to Small, the player will pick a card and demonstrate what an emotion looks like when it’s big and then contrast it with what it looks like when it’s small. While each player is in a version of the emotion (big or small), they have to say what their body is physically doing (arms in the air, bouncing legs, tapping feet, etc).

Example:
If a player picks “Excited,” a demonstration of big might be jumping up and down with hands in the air as though they’re at a baseball game. A demonstration of small might be expressed with wide eyes and a delightful smile.

Note to Adults:
If the young player isn’t able to notice what their body is doing, help them by stating the movement and if possible, mirror them so that they can see.
